

Those who intend to apply for admission to the Doctorate must possess some background knowledge in Economics and in Law.

For Economics the prerequisites consist of the fundamentals of microeconomics and macroeconomics, as usually taught in the first year of undergraduate courses in Economics

For Law the prerequisites are: fundamentals of contracts and torts, corporate law, labor law, public law and procedure.

Textbooks in basic economics that could be useful:

Economics :

Begg, D., S. Fischer and R. Dornbusch, Economics, Mc Graw Hill 7th edition
H. R. Varian, Intermediate Microeconomics, WW Norton & C. 6th edition
O. Blanchard, Macroeconomics, Prentice Hall 3rd edition

Law :

- Torrente-Schlesinger, Manuale di diritto privato, 17^a ed., Giuffrè, 2004
- Barbera-Fusaro, Corso di diritto pubblico, Il Mulino, 2004
- Comoglio-Ferri-Taruffo, Lezioni sul processo civile, 3^a ed., voll. I e II, Il Mulino, 2005
- AA.VV., Diritto commerciale, 4^a ed., Bologna, Monduzzi, 2004